

WATERWAY BILL WAS DISCUSSED

Development Of This Important Branch Of State Transportation Is Debated.

NO CHANGE IN SENATORIAL FIGHT

Both Houses Get Busy And Kill Bills Galore And Then
Adjourn Until Tuesday--Grassie For Ten-
Year Term For Attorney-General.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Madison, Wis., May 3.—The wonderful opportunities open to the state of Wisconsin in the direction of the improvement of the natural waterways
as avenues for transportation was the subject of an interesting hearing
yesterday afternoon before the senate committee on state affairs. This hearing was on bill number 635, introduced by Senator Owen, providing for the creation of a state waterways commission. The office of commissioner of waterways is created, to carry a proposed salary of $5,000 a year.
This officer is to have the same power and authority over transportation by water that the state railroad commissioner exercises over transportation by land. Another and perhaps more important duty of the commissioner is to investigate opportunities for improvement of navigable waters in Wisconsin and report thereon to the governor and legislature. Among the waterways in mind by those who advocate the bill are the Wisconsin, Chippewa, Black, St. Croix and Mississippi rivers. The commissioner is to be appointed in the usual manner
by the governor, to be confirmed by the senate. It is contemplated that the salary be made generous, $5,000
a year, so as to procure the services
of one of the best men in the country.
On this point, Senator Owen, author of the bill, says, "We want a good man or none at all. It would be worse than useless to provide a poor official."

of Chippewa Falls. They presented a strong array of facts tending to show that Wisconsin is possessed of most valuable undeveloped means of transportation in its waterways and that the state ought to meet its duty and embrace its rich opportunity in making an investigation of these waterways without more delay. One of the arguments was that this means of transportation would supplement
the railroads and tend to keep down rates of railroad freight. It was remarked that as President Roosevelt had recognized the importance of the development of the waterways of the country by appointing a commission to make an investigation, the proposed Wisconsin commission would doubtless work in harmony with the national commission.

Frear's Votes
Secretary of State Frear received three votes for United States senator
in the joint ballot of the legislature
this noon, one vote coming from Fred Peterson, a democrat. Otherwise there were no changes.

The assembly killed the democratic resolution to have an examination of state finances since the last democratic administration.

Assemblyman Grassie made an able speech in favor of making the salary of the attorney general $10,000 a year and the term ten years, instead of $3, 000 for two years. He argued the state suffered by not getting the best possible legal advice, and the pay of the office was so small and the tenure so brief and uncertain that no
good lawyer would run for election.

The assembly judiciary committee introduced a new bill to establish a system of Wisconsin naval reserves.
Twenty-nine bills were killed in the assembly and eight in the senate. Both houses adjourned until Tuesday. The republican senatorial caucus resumes
on Monday night.

cused by his teacher, Miss Anna Ful-gation of the other charges. The torn cently lost a damage suit against the Yale, while the navy second crew will

EXPOSITION SHOWS IRELAND'S ADVANCE

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Dublin, May 3.—When Dublin opens
her international exhibition tomorrow
the world will have its first opportunity of realizing the momentous revolution that is quietly but not slowly transforming the Emerald Isle into a land of abundance and prosperity.
There is no pretense that the exhibition is to be conducted on the vast cosmopolitan lines of Paris, Chicago or St. Louis, but it is the greatest and the most interesting scheme of the kind yet undertaken in Ireland. It is essentially an exhibition of Irish industries, though Germany, France and several other countries have sent exhibits that are of special interest to the Irish people. Neither Canada nor the United States is officially associated with the exhibition, but many sons and daughters of Ireland who have found homes in America, are expected to return on a visit to the old

NO HOPE FOR AMERICANS CONDEMNED TO BE SHOT

Agents Convicted Of Murdering Mexicans For Life Insurance Benefits Will Be Executed Within Two Weeks.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.]
Chihuahua, Mexico, May 2.—Unless an appeal to President Diaz is productive of executive clemency, which is regarded as improbable, this city will be the scene within the next two weeks of the execution of two Americans, C. T. Richardson and William Mason. They were convicted of murdering two men here for life insurance money, Richardson being the insurance agent, and Mason, his brother-in-law, an assistant agent. By order of the court they are to be shot to death. C. S. Harle, the examining physician and the third member of the conspiracy, is also under sentence of death.

The case has occupied the Mexican courts for the past five years and is one of the most extraordinary in the criminal annals of the republic. The two victims of the conspiracy were a man named Devers, decoyed from El Paso, and a man named Mitchell, said
to be a half-brother of Mason.

The prime mover in the plot was Richardson, whose real name is Hulbert. He was a Rochester lawyer who ran away to Mexico with seven indictments hanging over his head for running a "divorce mill." Mitchell was another Rochester lawyer who followed him later. With the help of Dr. Harle, of Chihuahua, they poisoned their victims with strychnine after having insured their lives in a New York company for $25,000.

After the murders the gang, except Harle, moved to Texas. Suspicion was aroused, and a detective was sent to Texas. Posing as a lumber merchant, he worked into intimacy with them. He took part in another plot to steal $50,000 and had himself arrested with the others. Besides the men there were two women mixed up in the affair.

The discovery of the insurance plot was quite accidental. In the fall of 1902, while looking over some Mexican policies, the solicitor-general of the insurance company in New York
noticed a peculiar coincidence in two Chihuahua claims. The claims, made through the same agent, Richardson,
were certified by the same doctor, Harle, and in both cases Dr. Harle
had been the examining physician.
The men had both died after short illnesses. One of them, Harry Devers, insured for $15,000, had died on February 11. The other, James Mitchell, who was insured for $10,000,
died on February 22. Yet the Mitchell claim was presented in February, and the Devers claim not until July. In both cases the insured had no other relative than the beneficiary.

In the first case the beneficiary was Hulbert's wife. In the second case it was William Mitchell, who posed as Devers' half-brother.

Upon investigation it was shown that the men had died and been buried as stated. "It wasn't a case of 'burying the rocks on the company.'" Then the check for the Devers claim came back to the New York bank. It was endorsed by C. T. Richardson, otherwise Hulbert. The other had been previously paid to his wife, the murdered Harry Mitchell's sister.

After the crowd had removed to Dallas, Texas, a detective named Gray was sent to Dallas in the guise of a lumber merchant. He succeeded in meeting Hulbert and after the two had become intimate Hulbert broached a scheme to cheat the insurance company out of $50,000. He said he had had experience. Detective Gray proposed that they insure Gray's brother-in-law for $50,000 as a beginning. A detective named Evans was imported by Gray as his brother-in-law. When the scheme had been thoroughly worked up and all the preliminary steps taken the whole crowd, including Gray, was arrested. A fellow detective of his had already overheard Mitchell and Hulbert scheming to kill off Gray. By accident in the prison at El Paso, Mitchell discovered what Gray really was.

Mitchell at once went into a sham
cataleptic fit that lasted two months.
Medical experts watched him, and declared that he was shamming. But all the usual tests failed. He paid not the slightest attention to needles stuck half an inch into his foot. He was dropped into a tank of cold water and sank to the bottom stiff. His teeth were clenched and he was fed on milk introduced through his nose
by a glass tube. Finally the detectives hit upon the idea of mixing whiskey with the milk. The man became drunk, jumped from his bed, and cursed at everybody in sight.

Finally Dr. Harle, who was still in Chihuahua, was induced to cross the border and was arrested. He was forced into a confession about his connection with the two Chihuahua claims. This was all the detectives needed. The proceedings against Mitchell and Hulbert on the Dallas plot were dropped, and all three were extradited to this place and tried for murder. With abundant money at their command the conspirators fought the case step by step, taking the case to the highest courts of Mexico. With every twist and turn to the law exhausted there now appears no hope of their escaping death at the hands of the executioners.

SPORTING REVIEW.

International Tennis — Gunner Moir, English Ring Champion.

DOHERTY HAS HARD TASK.

New Zealand Team Should Make a Strong Showing in Coming English Tennis Contest For World's Premiership.

The remarkable playing of Wilding of the New Zealand lawn tennis team, entered for the Davis international tennis trophy, in his matches at Nice has caused the English players to doubt the ability of the Doherty brothers to retain the championship this year.

In the south of France championships, Wilding has met and defeated M. J. G. Ritchie, who lately vanquished H. L. Doherty, the international champion; Beals Wright, regarded by many as the strongest player in America, and Max Decugis, champion of France.

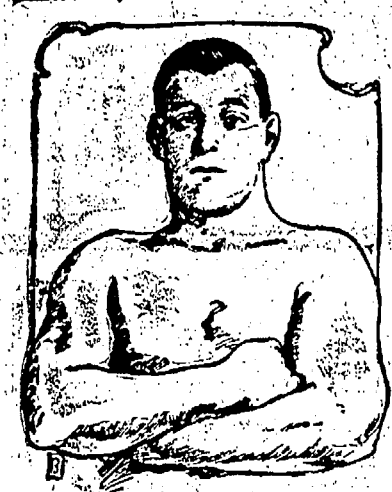

Wilding's play was little short of phenomenal. Ritchie went down before him in straight sets, 6-0, 6-0, 6-3. Beals Wright fared equally bad, losing two love sets. Irving Wright tried his hand against the New Zealander and met defeat in two love sets. Decugis, the Frenchman, put up a better struggle, only succumbing after two hard sets of 6-4, 11-9.

One writer says that Wilding's volleying was the finest ever seen, and his driving from the back of the court hard and steady. He scored ace after ace without much difficulty, which fact, when it is considered who opposed him, speaks most eloquently for his power and speed.

The fact that Norman E. Brookes beat Wilding for the championship of New Zealand pointed to the fact that the Australians will have a formidable team in the Davis international competitions. The English will be represented by the Dohertys, who will play in doubles, and by another singles player to be chosen from H. H. Smith, E. L. Risley and A. W. Gore.

Gunner Moir of London and his chances against Jack O'Brien or Tommy Burns have the call for the center of the fighting stage.

Moir is willing to fight either of the Americans, and if O'Brien decides to is too tough a proposition Burns says he will jump at the chance to meet the English slugger. Moir is the undisputed champion of England. He showed his caliber in his fight Feb. 25 with Tiger Smith at London. Smith was so sure of winning that he bought his release from the English army to get a chance at Moir.

He lasted less than a round, getting his sleep ticket in a terrific wallop from Moir's right.

Moir's willingness to fight is shown from the fact that he is already matched to meet Sam Langford, American colored heavyweight, without even mentioning the color line. The fight is to take place in London.

The managing committee of the "Big Nine" conference colleges, minus Michigan's representatives, met at the University club in Chicago recently and made further plans for the track and field games which will be held on Marshall field June 1. Michigan's representative, W. J. McKenzie, was not present; neither did he send in his resignation.

While the managing committee regrets that Michigan will not participate in the meet this year, it feels the conference cannot concede to the demands made by the Ann Arbor school. The prospects for a successful contest this year are very bright, as a number of colleges outside of the conference schools have already made inquiries regarding the meet. Lawrence university at Appleton, Wis., is the first school to file an application to enter the contest.

Rush C. Butler, who has been Iowa's representative on the committee since it organized, has resigned, and his brother, L. M. Butler, has been chosen as his successor.

George Siler, the veteran pugilistic referee, has issued a book containing his experiences in the prize ring and describing some of the noted fights at which he has officiated and in which the ring history of this country has been made. He also gives some technical details of the game which are of general interest.

One of the chapters in the volume deals with the art of "counting," and he relates how several fights have been lost or won through the referee becoming excited and failing to give a prospective candidate his full need of time.

Uncle Tom's Cabin: Al. W. Martin's mammoth scenic and electrical spectacular revival of the great and everlasting celebrated masterpiece of Harriet Beecher Stowe, entitled "Uncle Tom's Cabin," will be given at the Myers theatre, on Monday, May 6, the greatest and most interesting and heart rending plays ever placed upon the stage, and it will live forever in the memory of the theatre-going public.

Mr. Martin, the enterprising manager has taken great pains in staging and producing the original version of Mrs. Stowe's beautiful story, every year trying to outdo the previous. The company this season numbers fifty white people, including a chorus of twenty who will fill out the many pictures of the play and introduce many old and new songs, dances and plantation "shines."

In Defense of Dog: There are two sides to every story, and members of the Michael Griffin family whose dog is alleged to have injured the little daughter of George Richardson, Wednesday evening declare that the girl was playing with the animal, tossing a rubber ball, etc., and that when she took the ball away from him he jumped upon her shoulder and nabbed her just in fun; that the bite or scratch did not even draw blood. When Officer Bencke visited the premises to-day his dogship was nowhere to be found.

T. S. Welch Entered a Plea of Guilty to the Charge of Conducting a Wine Room.

T. S. Welch, proprietor of the Silver Moon saloon on North Main street, appeared in municipal court this morning and entered a plea of guilty to the charge of conducting a wine-room in his establishment, which was preferred against him yesterday. Judge Field, in view of the fact that it was the first offense, imposed the minimum penalty of $25 and costs amounting to $2.00, and the same were paid. He advised the offender to "let the woman trade alone" and Mr. Welch acknowledged that the advice was good, if all of the liquor dealers would follow it.

DIDN'T SEND THE SEATS.

Actor Not so Gallant as the Fair Ones Had Expected.

A well-known American actor, who is old enough not to consider himself a matinee idol by any means, was somewhat surprised and pleased when a St. Louis hotel a short time ago, when a pretty girl stopped him in the corridor and presented him with a rose, without saying a word. He was more surprised and less pleased to receive a note the following day reminding him of the incident, and asking him to send the giver of the flower two seats at the theater in which he was playing "as a memento of the occasion."

"My dear young lady," the actor replied, waxing sarcastic as he realized what had been the object of the attention he had been paid, "I would be glad to send you the seats you ask for, but, on consultation with the manager of the theater, I have been informed that the seats are all fastened down, and that he is opposed to having them sent away as souvenirs in any event, so that you will have to be contented with an autograph for a souvenir of your benevolence of yesterday instead."—Montreal Herald.

GATHER MANY QUEER THINGS.

No Limit to the Vagaries of the Curio Collection.

"Yes, this is a curious collection," remarked a woman who was strolling through the American Art Galleries one day last week looking at the Drake copper and brass objects, "but it isn't a patch on two that I've seen which I believe are much more curious. I was reminded of one of them by these brass shaving dishes of the sort they always use in the 'Barber of Seville,' with a piece cut out on one side to fit around the neck of the person being shaved. There is a man out in Ohio who has a collection made up of nothing but these shaving dishes in brass and copper, and as I remember he has not less than 800 of the things."

"The other one I saw down in Kentucky, where the owner of this queer conglomeration of single things had gotten together a collection of whiskies, all in bottles, and each one of which had a history of some kind attached to it. Many of the bottles had come from the cellars of famous men, the collector being particularly proud of one that had been owned by Henry Clay."—N. Y. Press.

Occupation for Women.

Working in silver is one of the most fascinating occupations open to women. The work, though absorbing, is not arduous and may be remunerative almost from the start. The materials are not costly, and few tools are required. The work is done at home, and more than one clever girl has interested herself in designing unique buckles and bangles.

MAPS HELP A MAN SLEEP.

Mental Geography the Best Sleep-Inducer. According to a Drug Clerk.

A haggard-looking man strolled into a drug store the other day and asked the druggist for help. He said he had trouble in getting to sleep when he retired. No matter how sleepy he might be during the day or how much sleep he might have lost, the moment his head touched the pillow he was wide awake and lay thus for several hours. Once asleep, he was hard to waken, but he had to be up at a certain hour, and in consequence of his peculiar affliction he was losing more sleep than he could stand. The drug clerk regarded him quizzically a few moments and then replied: "My dear man, you don't need medicine. What you want is something to change the trend of your thoughts. Do as a friend of mine did. He was troubled the same way and found that the old folks' plan of imagining sheep passing a barrier and counting them was out of date. So he began trying to name all the states in the union. He soon got them so he could classify them alphabetically. Then when they no longer interested him he started on the counties of this state. He now has them at his tongue's end, classified up to the fourth letter. Now he is starting on state capitals and their locations; then he will take up county seats. A moment's glance at an atlas during the day shows him when he is wrong, and the beauty of the plan is that he rarely has to think along these lines longer than ten minutes before he is sound asleep. To make it short, the study of geography is a good narcotic."

TALK AS MUCH AS EVER.

Man Thinks 'Phone Has Improved Conversational Powers.

"A count in the indictment against this businesslike age," said the doctor "is that the art of conversation is dying out. I wish respectfully to submit that one of our modern institutions effectually prevents any such catastrophe, if catastrophe it be. I refer to the telephone and its use. I have learned by experience that people not only say a good many disagreeable things over the telephone that they wouldn't say if they were face to face with you, but also that the telephone gives a flip to ordinary conversational powers quite amazing in its results. The detailed statement of symptoms over the telephone is something with which every physician is familiar, and there are patients of a certain mental makeup very apt to diverge easily into general remarks which, however valuable in themselves are singularly devoid of professional interest. I shudder to think what such persons have to offer in the way of talk when they go to the telephone for purely social purposes. Judging from the difficulty

I have frequently in getting the wire, I should surmise that we live in a network of society telephone calls—all well enough in their way, but not supporting the hypothesis that as a people we are suffering from dumbness."

That's the Question. Dr. Koehler of Wiesbaden has invented a machine to photograph the breath. Can you distinguish the cloves?

Land Gained from Sea.

The British coast erosion committee rejoices over the discovery that the sea has added 30,152 acres to the British Isles in 25 years and carried away only 419 acres. The land cut off has been valuable, however, while the sandbanks added may remain useless for many years.

Preparation for the Future. The best preparation for the future is the present well seen to.—George Macdonald.

Hiram D. Nash Here: Hiram D. Nash, a resident of Janesville in the '70's and at present water assessor in Sacramento, Calif., is visiting at the home of Register of Deeds, Charles Welrick. At the time he lived here Mr. Nash was identified with the firm of Nash & Cutts, manufacturers of fanning mills. He resided in Janesville from 1875 to 1871 and last visited here in 1882. Since then the west side business section has outstripped the east, but the third ward has sprung into a fine residential district.

WISCONSIN WEATHER FORECAST

Fair tonight and Saturday; frost tonight; warmer in the west.

TAFT FOR PRESIDENT.

The fact is generally conceded that President Roosevelt will not be a candidate to succeed himself, however much his friends may desire that he should be.

While hope is entertained that he may change his mind, the chances are ten to one that he will not, and the republican party will face the responsibility of naming his successor.

Among the men prominently mentioned for the place, none is more conspicuous than Wm. H. Taft, Secretary of War. Handicapped in some sections, because of the President's supposed endorsement, but strong in many more, on the same account.

Disguise it as you may, the fact remains that President Roosevelt has a hold on the American people such as no man has enjoyed since the days of Lincoln. He inspires confidence and retains it in spite of criticism, from whatever quarter, and his loyalty to conviction, on all questions of justice, has won the admiration and love of the masses.

He has a well defined policy, starting at times, because of the abruptness with which his plans are outlined, but tempered with justice he works on to the fulfillment of a great purpose.

Many of his plans will not be completed within his term of office expires, and it is perfectly natural that he should desire his successor to be a man in full sympathy with them, and while he can not delegate his strong personality to another, his wishes will command respect on the part of the largest constituency existing in this country today.

But Wm. H. Taft has more to recommend him than the endorsement of the President. He is a full-fledged American citizen of the broadest and most intelligent type, with a record for accomplishment second to none.

Secretary Root has been mentioned as a possible candidate, and he would doubtless be more acceptable to the conservative east, but Root belongs to another class of men. He is a great statesman and a diplomat of rare ability, but Taft would formulate and carry out a plan while Root was thinking about it.

Like President Roosevelt, he does things, and in this age that sort of ability is at a premium. Taft brought order out of chaos and confusion in the Philippine Islands, and every position of trust which he has occupied, reflects credit upon the man and his great resources.

Unless his fool friends in Ohio succeed in wrecking him before the campaign is launched, he will be a prominent factor in the next republican national convention.

It is folly for his Buckeye friends to mix him up with Foraker in a draw game of poker. There is no more sense in asking Foraker to retire from the senatorial contest, under certain conditions, than there would be for the senator to ask Taft to retire to private life, if defeated for the presidency, and no one knows this better than Taft himself.

The country is large enough for both men; and nothing will be gained by attempting to throw sand in the eyes of the public. Taft should have the Ohio delegation and the people of the state will honor themselves by supporting him.

Foraker is an able representative in the senate, and will doubtless be returned, if a senseless and uncalled for fight is avoided.

The convention is fourteen months away and many things may happen to change conditions, but Taft is too big a man, in every way, to be lost in the shuffle.

STEAD AND HIS MISSION.

Wm. T. Stead, of London, is accused of conducting a sort of Coox Army campaign in this country. He left home, some months ago, with a full-fledged world-wide mission stowed away in his wardrobe.

After visiting the crowned heads and potentates of the old world, he landed in New York one cold morning in March, and warned up a Methodist conference in session in that ungodly city by a few cuss words not on the program.

He toured westward and struck Chicago the other night, but was too swift for the audience that entertained him.

Stead is a great man, according to Stead. He has evolved a great mission, according to the same authority, but both the man and his mission are receiving some hard jolts from the "blasted country." "donch yer know."

His scheme is to have a delegation of twelve men from each and every country in the world, appointed to make a pilgrimage to the Hague peace conference. These delegates are to meet, at some convenient point, mass their forces, and proceed to Holland.

Just what they are to do after they arrive, is not very clearly defined, but they will doubtless camp in the park and pose for moral effect. Stead is asking the American people for any where from $100,000 to $1,000,000 to develop and engineer the enterprise. If he succeeds, it ought to be a nice trip for the enthusiastic promoter, but money is a little shy, just now, and it looks as though the peace conference will be obliged to worry along without him.

LAW AND ORDER.

The city marshal has been more or less handicapped in the performance of duty, because he was responsible to the common council, and his tenure of office depended largely on retaining the good will of the city fathers.

Conditions are changed, however, and under the law, which has recently gone into effect, the marshal is no longer a creature of the common council, and not accountable to them.

This places responsibility upon the man, where it belongs, and if the laws are not enforced, charges may prefer to the police commission, who have no alternative except to act.

The new law is highly satisfactory to the city marshal and he says that the people will have no further cause for complaint. It is needless to say that he should have the moral support of the community in his efforts to enforce law.

The town was practically dry last Sunday, every saloon being closed, some of them for the first time in many years. There were a few drunks on the street, but these were victims of the bottle and not of the bar.

The marshal is to be commended for his efforts and the saloon men are entitled to credit for strict compliance with the law. A city is at its best when it is law-abiding, and every citizen is at his best when he governs himself in compliance with protective and regulative ordinances. Marshal Appleby is entitled to hearty support in his efforts to enforce law and order.

Rock county people, who are interested in poultry will be pleased to know that an effort is being made to organize a County Poultry Association. The movement is being developed by the Milton Journal and all parties interested are requested to correspond with the publishers. Illinois has fifty-seven associations of this kind while Wisconsin has but twelve. The hen is an innocent bird, but her product is worth more than the wheat crop. It pays to cultivate the hen intelligently.

The good people of Milton are to enjoy a Chautauqua from May 14 to 19, under the auspices of the International Order of Good Templars. Prof. Charles O. Merica is on the program, with other noted speakers and entertainers. The meetings will be held in a big tent and will doubtless be well attended.

San Francisco has had everything but a strike to contend with, and the first of May completed the program. Labor unions are persistent, on the coast, and can usually be depended on for a disturbance. Wages are higher there today than at any city in the land, and still not satisfactory.

PAGE FOUR

Encourage the Young Poet.
(Empire, Kan., Gazette.)

Every man, woman and child should write poetry. It is like boils, it prevents worse sickness. If there were more poets there would be fewer criminals. Poetry is in every man's blood. If he doesn't write it at some time or other during his life watch out for him. His wild oats are unown; they will rot in his system and sour his nature. Write poetry, therefore, so long as there is a jingle in your soul. The man who would advise corks in poetry unwritten in a human heart would soon have all the world full of brainstorms and the devil to pay. It's a great business, this poetry business. And the man who hasn't had his fling with love and doves and spring and wing and skies and eyes and true and you and girl and pearl and lips and sips and honey drips (inspected and guaranteed absolutely pure) is like the man who died aged 72 years without being hungry—he missed a lot of fun filling up.

"Because," says another paper, "that is the only safe place to stand."

GEO. D. SIMPSON IS MADE COMMISSIONER

Former Captain of the Fire Police
Fifth Member of the New Commission.

Late Thursday afternoon Mayor S. B. Heddles appointed Geo. D. Simpson, as the fifth member of the fire and police commission as created under the new state law relative to the control and government of the police and fire departments in cities of the second and third class. Mr. Simpson's appointment came at the solicitation of many of the leading business men of the city and as a recognition of his long service as a member of the fire and police patrol. The commission under the old charter of the city of Janesville was composed of four members and the newly created commission is composed of five. The law making this a fact was passed on Tuesday, April 30th, and published the same day, going into effect at once. This commission handles the fire and police department directly, taking the power of selecting chiefs for the two departments from the council's jurisdiction. It is at present composed of Dr. Judd, president; C. C. Macdonald, secretary; William Jeffries, John F. Sweeney, and Geo. D. Simpson. The copy of the law creating the commission is as follows: The people of the state of Wisconsin, do enact as follows:

Section 1, section 959—40, statutes of 1898, is amended to read: Section 959—40. In all cities of the second and third class, however incorporated there shall be a board of police and fire commissioners, consisting of five citizens, not more than three of whom shall belong to the same political party when appointed. No salary or other compensation shall be paid to any member of such board. Three members shall constitute a quorum. Members of said board shall be appointed by the mayor in writing, and such appointment filed with the secretary of such board. It shall be the duty of the mayor of every such city between the first Monday of April and the first Monday of May, 1907, to appoint two members of said board, one of whom shall be appointed for the term of four years and one for the term of five years, and annually thereafter between the last Monday of April and the first Monday of May he shall appoint one member of said board for the term of five years. Members of said board shall hold their office until their successors are appointed and qualified. Every person so appointed shall, before entering upon his duties, take and subscribe the constitutional oath of office and file the same with the city clerk. Vacancies in the board shall be filled by the mayor for the unexpired term. Mr. Simpson will doubtless file his acceptance of the appointment and take his oath of office as prescribed by law, this afternoon or Saturday.

RYAN IS TO BID ON GRADING WORK IN SOUTH JANESVILLE

Janesville Contractor Will Submit Estimate on May 8 for Handling 125,000 Yards of Material.

Contractor P. W. Ryan of this city has received the specifications for the grading work incident to the construction of 20 miles of sidings in the Chicago & Northwestern Railroad company's new freight assorting yards at South Janesville. They call for the handling of from 100,000 to 125,000 cubic yards of material and the bids must be submitted to L. J. Putnam, the chief construction engineer in charge, by Wednesday, May 8. The work will have to be completed within six months and will probably be started before the first of June. The two Chicago contractors who went over the grounds yesterday and day before were George Chapman and John Marsh. Contractor Ryan commenced work on April 15 on a spur track grading at Genoa and Foreston, Ill., for the Illinois Central Railway company. About 25,000 square yards of material are to be handled on this contract.

IS FORMER RESIDENT INSANE AT KENOSHA?

Landlord of Hotel Orth Inquires Regarding E. W. Goldsborough Who Claims This City as Home.

John B. Orth, proprietor of the Hotel Orth of Kenosha, writes to City Marshal Appleby under date of May 2, asking whether or not there is any family by the name of Thomas Goldsborough or Thomas Goldsborough, Jr., residing in this city. He says that a man by the name of E. W. Goldsborough who claims Janesville as his home and says that he has sisters in Beloit, has become demented while stopping at the hotel, and that the writer has made arrangements with the county judge to have him sent to the asylum at Winnebago for treatment. While the parties about whom Mr. Orth inquires do not live here, it is believed that Mrs. Mary Goldsborough who resides at 106 Western avenue is a relative, and inquiries will be made some time today by the police.

Our Stove Sale

It burns common Coal Oil (and not much of it, either) with a clean, blue, hot, smokeless flame.

It has no wick to bother with, like the old-fashioned, yellow flame, smoking and smelling Oil Stove.

The "Quick Meal Wickless" was invented to enable ladies to do their cooking quickly and comfortably in a cool kitchen, and to prepare a "Quick Meal" and eat it in comfort.

The "Quick Meal" drives drudgery from the kitchen and worry from the house; it sweetens temper and it lengthens sleep. "Quick Meal" Stoves make happy homes.

..Forty Years Ago..

Janesville Daily Gazette, Friday, May 3, 1867.—Another installment.—The Horticultural Society had expected to close up the tree trade for this season, with the last installment, received two days' since, but they find the demand is still so pressing that they have determined to procure a few hundred more, which will be here on Tuesday or Wednesday.

The Beloit Journal Says: The no license system is working well in this city, though there may be more or less back door trade, which will soon be closed out by one efficient city marshal.

The late liquor sellers are caving in and leaving town one after another. The city council has licensed two or three druggists to sell liquor and alcohol for medical purposes. These licenses are to be restricted and are subject to revocation if violated in spirit or letter. This is alright if it don't get too sickly, but if it does, the disease will soon become apparent.

The Eight Hour Movement. Articles in the Chicago papers stated that the eight hour movement which was inaugurated in Illinois on the 1st inst., has already produced turbulent and riotous proceedings on the part of those for whose benefit the law was enacted. These men cannot force things in this way. They have undoubted right to work no more than eight hours a day if they please, but they must not undertake to regulate the hours of labor for others. Their interference with the rights of others will not make them friends, nor will the mob spirit they manifested yesterday enlist the sympathies of the public in their behalf. The eight hour system suddenly inaugurated anywhere must carry confusion and disaster into many a well established business, and it needs the exercise of great patience on the part of employers and employees to meet the new duties imposed on both parties. The spirit or letter. This is alright if it don't get too sickly, but if it does, the disease will soon become apparent.

Before The Footlights.

CORINNE FRANCES AS MARGARET DAW AND FREDDY NICE AS THE GINGERBREAD MAN IN "THE GINGERBREAD MAN."

With a tremendous success in New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and the largest cities of the United States the monarch of all musical plays, "The Gingerbread Man," will be presented by Myron B. Rice at the Myers theatre Saturday, May 4, matinee and evening. It is doubtful if there is a production on the road that in point of scenic splendor can compare in any respect with "The Gingerbread Man." Five of the leading scenic artists in the country were engaged for seven months in getting up this production. Myron B. Rice, the New York manager of "The Gingerbread Man," paid particular attention to the selection of the members of the company. The result is a cast, which is superior to any of the musical comedies now traveling in the United States. Madge Lawrence, who portrays "Mazie," a confectioner's salesgirl, who was transformed by an evil genius into a Sugar Plum and respectively into a princess, is famous for her beauty in two continents. Her song, "That Beautiful Land of Bon Bon," was the song hit of the last theatrical season in New York city. Others in the cast are Mildred Elaine, Fred J. Nice, Lute Vrohman, Corinne Frances, Harry Bond, Willard Louis, Helen Grey, Irving Newhoff, Maude Howe, Marguerite Girard, George Hoey, Jr., etc.

Knew What Was Good for Them. A minister of a church in Brooklyn was preaching on local evils, and especially of those that prevail to a greater extent than elsewhere in the borough in which his church is located. "I do not know," he said gravely, "which is the greater evil—the Brooklyn bridge or bridge in Brooklyn." The men longed to applaud but did not dare.

Natural Rock Barometer. The barometer rock of Finland—composed of clay, nitre and rock salt—turns from gray to black before a rain, a white efflorescence of salt appearing in dry weather.

ORIENTAL RUGS AND CARPET CLEANING by the patent reliable machine run by electric power. No wear on your goods. Don't forget it runs the year around, rain or shine. Shears and lawn mowers repaired. W. E. SPICER MACHINE SHOP 118 Lincoln St. New phone 258. Work called for and delivered.

FEAR VIOLENCE AT BOISE

CALM ABOUT MINERS' TRIAL COVERS APPREHENSION.

Hundreds of Threatening Letters Received by Gov. Gooding—Killing of Orchard Expected.

Boise, Idaho, May 3.—Counsel for prosecution and defense in the Steunenberg murder case have settled down to their final preparation work, and there is every reason for believing that the trial of William Haywood, first of the accused, will be commenced on Thursday next. Various reports as to moves tending to further delay the trial are in circulation, but the attitude of both sides indicates that they are ready to go to the bar for trial.

This oasis of the American desert seems to grow in exterior placidity as the date of opening of the first trial closely approaches. But under the surface of calm there is a strong undercurrent of apprehension and nervousness. Violence is the ever-present fear.

Letters that threaten every form of violence are pouring into Boise from all over the country by hundreds, and most of them are directed to Gov. Frank R. Gooding. Detectives, police and friends of the governor generally are constantly on the alert to block the blow and at the insistence of family and friends he has finally and under protest altered the routine movements of his life and work, at least to a point offering the least exposure compatible with the performance of his duty.

Another man similarly marked, in the belief of many men, is Harry Orchard, alleged to be the assassin hired by the three prisoners, whose alleged confession is the basis of the state's case. Perfectly reasonable men here look at the high witness chair in the county courthouse, shake their heads seriously and declare that Harry Orchard will die in it.

ELOPING RECTOR DEPOSED.

Rev. Jere Cooke Asks Bishop to Drop Him From Ministry.

New York, May 3.—Rev. Jere Cooke, who recently left Hempstead, L. I., where for five years he had been rector of St. George's Episcopal church, was deposed from the ministry Thursday night. This action was taken by Bishop Burgess following the receipt by him of a letter from the departed clergyman. The contents of the letter, beyond the fact that the writer had asked that he be dropped from the ministry, were not made public.

Coincidentally with Cooke's departure from town, Miss Floretta Whaley, a 17-year-old girl, who is about to come into an inheritance of $25,000, also disappeared from the home of her grandmother. The girl's parents are dead. She has written her grandmother that she had gone away with the minister. Cooke's wife is with her parents in Hartford, Conn.

S.S.S. CURES BLOOD POISON

The first symptom of Contagious Blood Poison is usually a little sore or ulcer which does not always excite suspicion because of its insignificance; but as the poison becomes more firmly rooted in the blood, the mouth and throat ulcerate, copper-colored spots appear, a rash breaks out on the body, the hair begins to come out, glands in the neck and groins swell, and often ulcerating sores form on the limbs, hands or face. But this is not all: if the poison is allowed to remain it works down and attacks the bones, causing necrosis or decay, and makes a complete physical wreck of the sufferer. It will not do to tamper with a disease so powerful as Contagious Blood Poison, for every day the virus remains in the blood the trouble is progressing toward a more dangerous stage, and may in the end get beyond the reach of any treatment. There is but one certain, reliable cure for Contagious Blood Poison, and that is S. S. S., the greatest of all blood purifiers. This remedy attacks the disease in the right way by going down into the blood and forcing out every particle of the poison. It makes the blood pure and rich, strengthens the different parts of the body, tones up the system and cures this humiliating and destructive disorder permanently. The improvement commences as soon as the patient gets under the influence of S. S. S. and continues until every vestige of the poison is driven from the blood, and the sufferer completely restored to health. S. S. S. is not an experiment, it is a success and has cured thousands of cases of Contagious Blood Poison in every stage, and being entirely free from minerals, is a safe as well as certain treatment. If you are suffering with this debasing disease get the poison out of your blood with S. S. S. before it does further damage. Special home treatment book on the disease and medical advice sent free to all who write.

AFTON.

Afton, May 3.—Brinkman's hall was the scene of a notable Woodman gathering last Tuesday evening, the event being the class adoption arranged by Afton Camp No. 2192, and participated in by the officers and forester team from Beloit Camp No. 348.

Twelve candidates showed up for initiation and the works as exemplified by the men from Beloit, was high grade throughout and thoroughly enjoyed by the large number present.

In addition to the neighbors from the Line City, there were visitors in attendance from Janesville, Shopiere, Hanover and Shirland. At the conclusion of the adoption ceremony the Beloit foresters gave an exhibition drill, the excellence of which may be inferred, when it is remembered that the 348 team is the best drill of any in the state and has captured many prizes in competitive drill contests throughout the jurisdiction. Round after round of applause greeted them in their movements from start to finish, attesting to the appreciation of the audience.

Following the drill, all present partook of a tempting supper served by Mrs. Nellie McGree, after which brief speeches were made by Consul F. A. Thornton of Beloit, J. J. Cunningham and O. H. Morse of Janesville and J. B. Humphrey of Afton camp. The former incorporated in his remarks, words of appreciation for the hospitable reception accorded the Beloit members and his tribute was reinforced by the members themselves, who joined in extending the "Woodman honors" and in cheers for Afton camp.

Mr. Humphrey moved a vote of thanks to the Beloit boys for their kindness in coming to Afton to participate in the meeting and it carried with a hurrah. He then told two good Irish stories and named the way for Attorney Cunningham, who told a story, threw a few bouquets at Afton camp and referred eloquently to the greatness of fraternity as exemplified in the Modern Woodmen of America.

Neighbor Morse disclaimed the idea of being an orator, referred to a previous visit to Afton camp with pleasure and said it was good for him to be present at the class adoption. Others visiting members present had been slated for speeches, but owing to the lateness of the hour further talking was of necessity dispensed with. The addition of the twelve new members brings the membership of Afton camp up to 66, with two other candidates ready for adoption and with several possible applicants for membership in view. The next regular meeting of the camp will be held Saturday evening May 4th.

After four and one half years continuous service as clerk in the Brinkman general store here, W. R. McGree has resigned to enter the employ of the Rockford and Interurban railway company as conductor. Mr. McGree will assume his new duties next week and begin the process of "breaking in." His place in the store will be filled by U. G. Walte.

The teachers and pupils of the Afton state graded school observed last Friday as Arbor day, and labored earnestly and well in cleaning up the school grounds and in the setting out of trees. The members of the school board also took a hand in the work, grubbing out dead trees and setting new ones. A picnic dinner under the trees was a pleasing feature of the day and was thoroughly enjoyed by all.

The Loyal Americans met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. U. G. Walte last Saturday evening.

The next regular meeting of the Royal Neighbors will be held Thursday, May 9th, at 2:30 p. m. At the last meeting one new application for membership was received and favorable action taken thereon.

SEEK TO AVERT WAR IN SISTER REPUBLICS

MEXICO AND GUATEMALA ARE ANXIOUSLY WATCHED.

CONFABS IN WASHINGTON

Revolution Against Cabrera's Government Started Across the Border, May Be Outcome of the Friction.

Washington, May 3.—The strained relations between Mexico and Guatemala, arising from the failure of the latter to surrender under extradition proceedings, for trial in Mexico, Gen. Lima, charged with complicity in the assassination of President Barrillas, is a matter of serious concern to the officials here. They are sincerely desirous of the maintenance of peace in all of the three Americas pending the meeting and conclusion of the second Hague conference; otherwise the presentation of certain subjects to the conference by the United States would lose much of its force.

With this in view, the state department has gone to unusual lengths in its efforts to terminate the war between Nicaragua and Honduras, and also to guard against further troubles in the future by providing for a permanent peace commission to meet in Nicaragua. The details of this last arrangement, particularly as to time and place, are expected to be disclosed in the treaty of Amapala when the text of that recently negotiated convention reaches Washington.

Anxious Conferences Held. Hence the officials view with apprehension the increasing friction between Mexico and Guatemala and there are frequent conferences at the state department, the latest being Thursday between Secretary Root, Assistant Secretary Bacon and Ambassador Creel, of Mexico, in the pursuit of a common purpose to avoid a fresh outbreak of war.

As the situation stands to-day, it may be stated, upon authority, the Mexican government does not believe it will be necessary to go to the length of actual hostilities. It does feel that it has a right to demand of Guatemala the surrender of fugitives who have committed the greatest crimes upon Mexican soil. It is feared that the demand for Jose Lima will ultimately be refused by Guatemala, if for no other reason than because Lima is regarded as the right hand man of President Cabrera, in whose interest he is charged with having conspired at the assassination of Barrillas. But even in that event war might not follow, according to this authority.

The Mexican troops that have been mobilized on the Guatemalan frontier to the number of 10,000 would be retained there and diplomatic relations of the two countries would be terminated, but there would be no declaration of war and no hostile acts on the part of Mexico so long as there was no fresh provocation by Guatemala.

Revolution May Result. Such a situation would be unpleasant, but not intolerable, and might be terminated in one or two ways; either by the breaking out of a revolution directed against Cabrera's government, or by the decision of the latter to yield to the Mexican demand for Lima's extradition. The Guatemalans assert that a very active junta exists in Mexico with the object of financing and starting a revolution in Guatemala against the existing government and it is pointed out that Gen. Barrillas was assassinated because he was the head of that junta.

MAN HUNT IN NEBRASKA. Sheriff and Posse After Farmer Who Killed Saloonkeeper.

Advice of the largest coffee dealers in the world is always to buy the old-fashioned Arbuckles' ARIOSIA Coffee in the sealed packages. Don't ask for a pound of Mocha and Java, or buy by the price, for Coffee fluctuates and you cannot get the same coffee for the same price all the time unless you pay too much for it. Most of the so-called Mocha and Java Coffee is simply masquerading, and is not nearly as good coffee for you as Arbuckles' ARIOSIA, the blend of the Brazilian Coffees most suitable to the taste and health of American people. By the principal difference is that Arbuckles' costs you less. It is a mistake to believe that a high price guarantees quality. When you buy Arbuckles' ARIOSIA Coffee, you get a full one pound package of the leading Coffee of the world. Its sales for 37 years are greater than the combined sales of all the other packaged coffees. By giving better Coffee for the money, we have built up a business exceeding the combined businesses of the four next largest coffee firms in the whole world. If your dealer will not supply the genuine, write to ARBUCKLE BROS., New York City.

held a revival in Austin, and here is what the editor of the Adams (a near-by town) Review says about him:

"We had intended having an article of some length this week in regard to W. A. Sunday and his work in Austin, but a lack of space forbids anything of much length. What The Review has said about him has been proven in Austin the past week. He tells lots of truth, uses all kinds of slang, good, bad and indifferent, is a religious grifter and is daily roasting Austin's piousness, rich because they didn't come down with the coin. The meetings are conducted on a vaudeville show plan—two pianos, an orchestra of eight or ten pieces, a chorus of one hundred voices, with Sunday as spieler, acrobat and general star performer. He has made the Austin ministers taking part, look like thirty cents. In his sermons he speaks much truth, but no more than was ever spoken by Bob Ingersoll, Tom Paine, Henry Ward Beecher, or any of the noted orators of christianity or infidelity. We do not believe that there is much lasting religion, and no christianity at all, in Sunday's sensational brand and we dare say that nine-tenths of the people, first go to hear him out of curiosity, and under the novelty of the excitement temporary believe that they have become religious. You find lots of religious people among Sunday's converts but a mighty few genuine Christians."

PROVE IT

Beautiful Hair At Small Cost.

WITHIN the last decade great and rapid strides have been made in Materia Medica. Many diseases that were considered incurable fifteen years ago are now cured in a few days, and in many cases prevented altogether. The scientists of late years have been delving for the cause, the foundation, the reason and the starting point of disease, fully realizing that the actual and true cause must be ascertained before the remedy can be located. Hair troubles, like many other diseases, have been wrongly diagnosed and altogether misunderstood. The hair itself is not the thing to be treated, for the reason that it is simply a product of the scalp, and will only dependent upon its action. The scalp is the very soil in which the hair is produced, nurtured and grown, and it alone should receive the attention if results are to be expected. It would do no earthly good to treat the stem of a plant with a view of making it grow and become more beautiful—the soil in which the plant grows must be attended to. Therefore, the scalp in which the hair grows, must receive the attention if you are to expect it to grow and become more beautiful.

Loss of hair is caused by the scalp drying up, or losing its supply of moisture or nutriment, and when baldness occurs the scalp has simply lost all of its nourishment, leaving nothing for the hair to feed upon (a plant or even a tree would die under similar conditions).

The natural and logical thing to do in either case is, feed and replenish the soil or scalp as the case may be, and your crop will grow and multiply as nature intended it should.

Dr. Knowlton's DANDERINE

is the only remedy for the hair ever discovered that is identical with the natural hair foods or liquids of the scalp. It feeds and nourishes the hair and does all the work originally carried on by the natural nutrients or life-giving juices generated by the scalp itself. It penetrates the pores of the scalp quickly and the hair soon shows the effects of its wonderfully exhilarating and life-producing qualities.

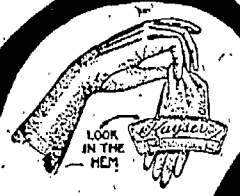

One twenty-five-cent bottle is enough to convince you of its great worth as a hair growing and hair beautifying remedy—try it and see for yourself. Now on sale at every drug and toilet store in the land. Three sizes, 25c, 50c and $1.00.
